VOL. XXX:

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1902, 9 A.M.

NO. 58

LANCASTER.

Mr. Jerry Doty left Wednesday night for Louisville to be treated by a specialist.

The Lyceum Company have arranged six standard attractions for the winter season.

The protracted meeting at Fairview, five miles East of here, has closed with 35 accessions to the Christian church.

Mrs. W. O. Bradley has gone to Lexington to join her daughter, Miss Christine, who is under treatment at the St. Joseph Infirmary.

Moses Ed and Napo Price bought two calves from W. S. Ferguson at 4c. Fox & Lawson bought of Elkin & Myers 17 hogs at 6c.

Several of the county schools are still closed on account of scarlet fever and other sickness, and the delay is unfortunate for both pupils and teachers.

Judge J. C. Hemphill sold a heifer to Jim Parks at 3c. Elkin & Myers bought of Fred Stone a fine heifer at 3c and two heifers of John Pound at 3c.

A number of the women from the Herring school-house auxiliary have been invited to the open session of the W. C. T. U. Saturday, and a good attendance is expected.

The Presbyterian membership will observe next Sunday morning as "Italy Day," and not only all the pupils and teachers, but the parents are cordially invited and expected to be present on this occasion.

A Sunday School rally was held Monday at the Presbyterian church, in which Mr. James N. Denny was present as county president, and several other interested workers took an active part in the organization.

The city marshal, S. D. Rothwell, is said to be recovering from his fall at the recent fire and will soon be able to resume his official duties. In the meantime Matt Siler is acting as marshal and J. Mort Rothwell as tax collector.

The geological surveyors have just completed their work in Lower Garrard and now the people of the Bryantsville section are eagerly awaiting the arrival of the railroad corps of engineers, locating the line of the Louisville Southern.

The members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union have sent the picture of their late beloved president, Mrs. Margaret Gill, to Cincinnati to have an enlarged copy made and will hang it in their hall, along with that of Miss Frances Willard.

The young people's missionary society of the Presbyterian church will give a "silver tea" on the evening of Oct. 3d from 7:30 to 10 o'clock, tea will be served free of charge, but a voluntary offering of a silver coin is expected for the benefit of missions.

The drilling for water continues and a depth of over 700 feet has now been reached. Another accident in the way of breaking a drill has occurred and a workman was again compelled to go to Cincinnati to repair the damage. The boring is still through solid limestone, with no appearance of other formation.

The Robinson monument just erected in the Lancaster Cemetery is one of the handsomest in this section of Kentucky. It is of fine grain light Barre granite, richly decorated with carvings executed in the best style. The columns are highly polished, surmounted by a statue of Hope larger than life-size, finished in the most effective work of the true artist. It is the largest and most massive family memorial in Lancaster's beautiful city of the dead. The design and execution were the work of Adams & Son, of Lexington, the same firm that erected the Confederate monument at Harrodsburg last week.

The speaking occurred too late Monday afternoon to be reported for Tuesday's issue, but one of the largest crowds that has been here for a year was present to hear Congressman Gilbert. Judge Sauley, Hon. Hobt. Hardling and Con W. Bell. Judge Sauley delivered an eloquent address of two hours in which he scored the action of the committee and expressed a wish that the selection of nominees be left to a primary. The judge's friends consider his speech the finest he has made during the campaign and were out en masse to rally to his support. Both Judge Sauley and Mr. Hardling have made appointments to speak throughout the county, the judge to speak Friday afternoon at Paint Lick and Saturday afternoon at Bryantsville.

Mrs. Leander Davidson is at home from a visit to her daughter at Richmond. Miss Wagner, of Columbus, O., is the guest of the Misses Gill. Misses Scott and Hughes, of Nicholasville, are guests of Miss Lizzie Hudson. Mrs. Gaines and son, of Lexington, are visiting relatives here. Misses Martha and Helen Gill left Tuesday night for school at Glendale, Ohio. Miss Alberta Anderson has returned from a visit to Lexington. Mrs. W. R. Romaes and daughter are at home from a visit to Richmond. Mrs. St. Clair has returned to New Orleans after spending the summer in this vicinity. Mrs. Margaret Jones and daughter, of Harrodsburg, are visiting Mrs. Bob McRobert. Miss Banchee Tuggee has returned to Barboursville. Mrs. J. C. Hemphill leaves soon to attend the Cincinnati fall festival. W. M. Bogle has returned to Owenton. R. H. Batson is back from Chicago. Mrs. Corale Clay, of Richmond, is visiting Mrs. D. L. Walker. Mrs. Louis Landrum and the Misses Marksberry are in Cincinnati.

Clarence Coleman Sees Teddy.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 21.—Dear INTERIOR: As I have been silent for several weeks past, I beg to again intrude on your valuable space for just a few lines from this point. I came up to the Ohio city Friday to take in a few days of the Fall Festival, which opened Monday and will continue until Saturday. The city is now in her glory, richly attired in bunting and flags of all colors and descriptions. Both business houses and residences are decorated. Yesterday was "President's Day" and a royal welcome he received. I saw the crowd and the parade. Thought I had seen great crowds before, but former gatherings glimmer into insignificance when compared to that which greeted Teddy. Watterson's "bronchobuster" yesterday. Fully half a million people were on the streets. True that is a lot of people. Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Race, Walnut, Vine and other thoroughfares for miles and miles were simply one gigantic phalanx of human beings, besides every window full, during the parade. The president could never have hoped for a warmer reception or a more cordial greeting than that paid him at Queen City. It seemed as if Ohio and Indiana had turned out in mass to greet him. As Comrade J. B. Stearns, of the Jessamine Journal, said: "We Democrats can never hope to elect another president after this." He said this laughingly of course. The president's reception and speechmaking here was not a political affair, but simply a guest of Cincinnati and of the Fall Festival. He came on an invitation extended him by the Business Men's Club of Cincinnati, and director of C. P. E., regardless of party. I had never seen a press agent and was doubly anxious to see one and see what they looked like. I have seen the Rough Rider now and have heard him speak.

This year's festival is a grand success and the attendance will be much larger than of any previous meetings. The Midway with all its Oriental shows and side shows is here and reaping a harvest as usual.

I met Mr. J. B. Stearns, of the Jessamine Journal, on the train coming to the city, and we took in the city together. I am under obligations to him for many favors bestowed. Among the many was a press pass which took us into every show on the grounds.

As it will soon be train time, will ring off for the present. I return to Illinois today. With best wishes to the J. and its myriad of readers, I am very respectfully,

CLARENCE COLEMAN.

MATRIMONIAL.

George Hunt and Miss Mary Jones were made one at the court-house by Judge Bailey Wednesday.

Over 100 wedding guests were suffocated or burned to death as the result of a fire and panic in Russia.

After 46 years of married life, Mrs. Nancy Bishop sued for divorce from George W. Bishop at Cincinnati.

Ollie Murphy, son of William Murphy, and Miss Beasle Martin, eldest daughter of Mr. Ben P. Martin, both of Rowland, eloped to Jellico Wednesday and were made one. The bride is an exceedingly pretty and popular young lady and Mr. Murphy is to be congratulated on winning such a prize. The groom is in the employ of the L. N. and is a fine young man.

Samuel J. Tate and Miss Jennie Payne, both of Crab Orchard, were married in Cincinnati Monday. The two have been lovers for some 10 years and the marriage is no surprise to their friends. The bride is the handsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Payne and is a most excellent young woman. She is related to the Severances, of this place, and has been a frequent visitor to them. Mr. Tate is a clever young business man of his town, who numbers his friends by the thousands. The INTERIOR JOURNAL extends its heartfelt congratulations to the happy pair and wishes them the best of everything going.

RAISED FROM THE DEAD.

C. W. Landis, "Porter" for the Oriental Hotel, Chanute, Kan., says: "I know what it was to suffer with neuralgia, dear I did, and I got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment and I was raised from the dead." I tried to get some more, but before I had 'deposed' of my bottle, I was cured entirely. I am tellin' de truth too." 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

NEWS NOTES.

Judge W. W. Robertson is dead at Mayfield.

A New York Stock Exchange seat was sold for $35,000.

A Philadelphia coal dealer is preparing to import Welsh coal.

A tour of the Northwest will be made by the president in the Spring.

The coal strike has sent the price up to $16 a ton in Washington City.

Four men were killed in a fight among feudists at Spokogee, I. T.

In New York a woman stabbed her husband and then cut her throat. Both will die.

Soldiers are on duty in five of the 10 anthracite coal-producing counties of Pennsylvania.

The State Fair opened at Louisville Monday with an immense crowd and a fine show of stock.

Dr. George S. Seymour committed suicide in Louisville by turning on the gas in his bathroom.

The farmers of Mills county, Kansas, offer five meals and five drinks of whisky a day for laborers.

Several British match manufacturers have been driven out of business by American competition.

Fire which destroyed the clothing store of Louis Saks at Birmingham, Ala., caused a loss of $240,000.

Moses Brown, a prominent citizen of Ocala, Fla., was shot and killed there by W. T. Frasier, also prominent.

Hon. John R. Hendrick, of Paducah, tendered his resignation as a member of the Goebel Reward Commission.

Judge George H. Duran withdrew as the democratic nominee for governor of Michigan. Ill-health was the cause.

A Parsee of Bombay, proposes to leave $5,000,000 for the benefit of persons impoverished by sudden calamity.

The postoffice and general store of George W. Glass, at Scott's Station, near Shelbyville, was destroyed by fire loss, $2,000.

General Superintendent Machen, of the free delivery system, estimates that between $11,000,000 and $12,000,000 will be required for the rural free delivery service in the next fiscal year.

Kentucky's great trot at Lexington, Oct. 7 to 17, will be the best ever held in old Kentucky or any where else. The great campaigners of the Western and Eastern circuits meet there for the first time. Record breaking and thrilling contests may be anticipated with certainty. The best races ever heard of are in sight and all Kentucky should turn out. Half fare rates are in force throughout the State and the association has provided a musical treat in daily concerts by DeBaugh's famous band.

CHURCH MATTERS.

It is feared that the Rev. H. W. Jones, pastor of the colored Baptist church at Owenton, was killed in the stampede at Shiloh church, Birmingham. Col. Joseph Ballou will preach at the Christian church here next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The lawyers of Stanford are especially requested to be present.

John Alexander Dowle, the alleged modern day prophet, is getting into such close financial straits that the indications are he will have to re-Zion—Lexington Leader.

Elder J. T. Sharrard closed his week's meeting at Old Union. There were 23 additions to the church as a result of the meeting—18 by confession and baptism. The meeting was very largely attended throughout.—Paris Kentucky.

DEVOURED BY WORMS.

Children often cry, not from pain, but from hunger, although fed abundantly. The entire trouble arises from inanition, their food is not assimilated, but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once, very much to the surprise and joy of the mother. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

Kentucky's great trot at Lexington, Oct. 7th to 17th. Half fare on all railroads on account of the best trotting meeting on earth.

MISS ETTA GOOCH

is the 10-year-old daughter of Mr. S. H. Gooch, of Waynesburg, and is probably the youngest telegraph operator in the State. She can take train orders and Western Union dispatches with the correctness and rapidity of old stagecoaches while she is equally as good at sending messages. She is a beautiful little girl, as her picture shows, and is as bright and entertaining as she can be.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

Rhythmic won the 2-20 trot at Readville, Mass.

Lord Derby won the $10,000 trot at Rendeville, Mass.

Two cows and 18 pigs for sale. J. W. Adams, Stanford.

Sixty stock hams for sale. C. L. Carter, Turnerville.

Pair aged mules for sale. C. H. Sibley, Crab Orchard.

J. C. Bailey bought of J. M. Alverton a black gelding for $150.

Three young Cotswold bucks for sale. John Dixie, Oteenhelm, Ky.

FOR SALE—4c to 75c to 1,100-pound cattle. McGuire & Hubble.

G. D. Boone sold a car-load of butcher stuff in Cincinnati at 2 to 4c.

FOR SALE—20 good yearling steers. D. M. Anderson, Preachersville.

H. C. Gatewood sold to Carrithers & Beard, of Lexington, a pair of mare mules for $100.

Strayed or stolen from my place at Hedgeville a black mare, 12 years old, on right hip. J. C. Clord.

E. P. Woods bought of Mrs. Ike Phillips three 1,000-pound cattle at 3c and two 900-pounders at 3c.

T. B. Dunn, of Madison, rented of Mrs. John Crutchfield her large farm of 480 acres near Bryansville for $900.

M. J. Harris bought 70 cattle at Lancaster from 3 to 3,600. He has also purchased 1,500 barrels of corn at from 50c to $1.00 at the heap.—Advocate.

At Mrs. J. C. Miller's sale in Madison 80-pound shoats sold at $7, mule colts $25 to $70, milk cows $28 to $36, corn in field $1.50 and oats $1.50 per 100 bundles.

FOR SALE—A splendid lot of Durac Jersey heifers, four months old, subject to register. Price $10 for the next week. Write or call at once R. H. Bronough, Crab Orchard, Ky.

Emmett McCormack weighed up this week from Frye & Allen 21,232-pound cattle at 5c and 27,120-pounders of J. B. Foster at the same price. He bought of J. P. Riffe 20 about same weight at same price.

R. H. Crow sold to an Indiana party a car-load of feeding cattle, weighing 1,050 pounds, at 4.85. Mr. Crow also sold C. T. Rohan an aged mule for $100 and three mule colts for $150 and to B. Fox two two-year-old mules for $180.

Dan Patch, the famous pacer, equalled the world's record of 1:59½, made by Star Pointer on the Readville track five years ago. Horsemen who saw Star Pointer's performance said that the conditions were identical, the weather being as near perfect as a day could be.

Kansas farmers say that it costs them 16 cents a bushel to raise corn, counting the interest on the value of the land at $2.35 an acre. The Peoria Herald, printed at a great corn market, thinks this is considerably less than it costs to raise corn in Illinois, and places the figures in that State at 20 to 25 cents a bushel.

Judge John W. Hughes bought 34,100-pound cattle from Ben Sanders at 4c. Mr. Sanders will take them back Nov. 1 at 6c. Mr. Sanders says good cattle won't bring less than 6c between now and Christmas, but next year cattle that are now bringing 7c will sell for 5c. Dan Patch sold Oscar Abraham 50 head of 900 and 1,000-pound butcher cattle at 4c.—Harrodsburg Herald.

THE court of appeals affirmed the decision of the lower court in the suit for damages of S. C. Arnold against the town of Stanford for locating the pest-house near his residence. The court here found for the town.

WE have decided to make a cheap grade of work along with our high class work. If you want a cheap picture now you don't need to stand out in the sun to get it, but come to the gallery and get it right. M. Sacay.

ALL who have seen the "Dude" Drill by the 16 graceful young ladies, say it is the greatest thing ever given in Stanford and the young gentlemen say the "Dudine" Drill will be equally as good. Don't miss it at the opera house tonight.

THERE is a general desire on the part of his Lincoln county friends for Judge M. C. Saufley to speak here next county court day. Many people came to town last court under the impression that the judge would address his fellow democrats and went home disappointed. There is no real need of a speech from our distinguished townsmen, for the boys in old Lincoln are for him to a unit, but they want to hear him and they use the INTERIOR JOURNAL as a mouthpiece to ask him to "give 'em a talk."

HORRIBLE—if the verdict of the coroner's jury, which we publish below, is a true one, and we suppose it is, Mrs. David Crutchfield is not only a very unnatural mother but is guilty of a most horrible crime. It is claimed that she brought about the death of her child and the charge of murder has been registered against her. The baby was born at Rowland Tuesday morning and a short while later its cries attracted attention to an outhouse where the little thing was found under the floor with its head badly crushed. Medical aid was at once summoned but the injuries it had received were too severe for it to overcome and its little light went out a few hours later. The mother was not in condition to be questioned at the inquest, but it is generally supposed that she destroyed her offspring to hide her shame, as she had been married only a few weeks.

Following is the verdict of the coroner's jury:

We, the jury, agree and find that the infant born to Mrs. Alice Crutchfield on Sept. 23, 1902, came to its death by being crushed to death or by some other violent means on the premises of Rebecca Crutchfield by its mother.

There was no one present at the time and that Mrs. Alice Crutchfield is responsible for its death.
